REHABILITATION OF OFFENDERS ACT 1974

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (ROA) allows most convictions (and cautions) to be considered spent after a specified period of time. Once a caution or conviction is spent the person is considered rehabilitated and the ROA treats the person as if they have never committed an offence. In addition to this, the fact that a person has an unspent conviction will not be grounds for the Association to automatically refuse to recruit that person. If you are applying for a post which is excluded and exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exclusions and Exceptions) (Scotland) Order 2003 you are not to withhold information about criminal convictions which for other purposes are spent. Any information given will be treated as confidential and only considered in relation to the post for which you are applying.

Do you have a Criminal Conviction (s) YES / NO

THE ASYLUM AND IMMIGRATION ACT 1996

The Asylum and Immigration Act 1996 makes it an offence to employ anyone who is not entitled to live and work in the UK. All applicants selected for interview will be required to provide evidence that they are entitled to live and work in the UK. Appropriate documentation may include the following:-

- a) Original of your current passport or
- b) Birth certificate/marriage certificate and national insurance card/P45/P60 etc.

Do you have any restrictions on taking up employment in the UK (e.g. work permit, VISA) YES / NO

DISABILITY/ALTERNATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

Do you consider yourself to have a disability?

We are committed to being an Equal Opportunities Employer and do not discriminate in any way. If you consider yourself to have a disability, are there any arrangements we can make to assist/adapt, for you, if you are called for interview or if successfully employed? If so, please provide details.

CANVASSING

Canvassing directly or indirectly in connection with the appointment shall disqualify your application. If discovered after appointment you will be liable to dismissal.

DATA PROTECTION

Information from this application will be processed for purposes permitted under the General Data Protection Regulations. Individuals have, on written request, the right to access their personal data held on them.
